BOOSTER CROWD TO GREET SCOVILLE

EVANGELIST AND WIFE TO BE MET BY MARYVILLE CITIZENS.

PARADE SCHEDULED AT FAIR GROUNDS

Revivalist Will Be Introduced Afterward—Extension Committee Completes Plans for Advertising.

Dr. Charles Reign Scoville, the famous evangelist, will be greeted by a crowd of campaign boosters when he arrives on Burlington train No. 3, at 4:48 o'clock this afternoon.

Accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Arlene Dux Scoville, the evangelist will be escorted to an automobile at the head of a long line of cars that will make up a parade. The parade will move from the station to the fair grounds, where it will be joined by the Maryville band.

Then through the courtesy of the fair officials, with the band leading the parade will go around the track, stopping in front of the grand stand, where the revivalist will be introduced and Prof. Charles Forsythe, musical director of the Scoville party, will sing a solo. From the fair grounds the parade will pass through the principal streets of the city, ending at the Wilson home, on East Seventh street, where the Scoville party will live during its stay in Maryville.

"Hear Scoville at the Big Tent Sunday."

Thousands of badges bearing the above inscription are being worn by local boosters today. Tomorrow two, and possibly three, meetings will be held. The morning service will start at 11 o'clock. The Sunday schools will meet at their respective churches and a few minutes before 11 o'clock will march to the tent on the high school grounds. It is expected that the seating capacity of the place will be taxed to the limit.

Choir Rehearsals.

Professor Forsythe of the Scoville party, who has been rehearsing a big choir of local voices, will distribute the new song books, of which a large shipment arrived last night. The singing during the campaign will be one of the main features, according to advance notices of the work of Professor Forsythe.

Members of the Scoville party will be introduced and Mrs. Scoville, the pianist and soloist, will sing. Mrs. Scoville, at a big conference of evangelists at Winona Lake recently, made a decided impression with her solos.

"This campaign will determine who is on speaking terms with God," declared the Rev. R. U. Waldraven, assistant of Dr. Scoville, at a prayer meeting at the First Presbyterian church last night. "We want unity in Maryville as we have never had it before. Everybody must work together to overthrow the forces of evil."

Professor Forsythe drilled the audience for a time in some of the campain songs, after which a warm prayer season was held.

City is Districted.

Committees named yesterday conferred after the meeting, and today the devotional committee, with the Rev. C. Emerson Miller of the Christian church districted the city for prayer services throughout the campaign.

The extension committee this forenoon completed extensive plans for advertising the campaign through the county. Monday four parties will be sent out. Four automobiles will be in each party. The towns of Wilcox, Burlington Junction, Quitman, Skidmore, Graham, Pickering, Hopkins, Orrsburg, Harmony Center, Ravenwood, Mt. Ayr, Arkoe and Barnard will be visited. Bills and cards will be tacked at every available spot enroute.

The Rev. Mr. Waldraven, who is now in charge of the arrangements, was again gratified at the courtesy of the fair officials yesterday. On Thursday the announcer made detailed announcement of the campaign and yesterday upon request, Professor Forsythe stood in the band stand and sang "Mother Machree." He was accorded an enthusiastic ovation and was forced to respond to an encore.

Enthusiasm Waxes High.

Enthusiasm is waxing high in the various committees and meetings. The devotional committee will district the city so that in every neighborhood a home will be thrown open no fewer than three times a week for prayer services. The praying folks will get together and pray for those whom they hope to see "hit the trail" at the tent.

All members of the Scoville party, with the exception of the evangelist and Mrs. Scoville, are now in the city. Miss Stella Robinson, secretary of the party, arrived last night, joining the Rev. M. Waldraven, Prof. Forsythe, Lou D. Parker, extension secretary, and Floyd F. Miles, publicity manager. Miss Robinson was introduced at the prayer meeting, but asked to be excused from speaking. Short "pep" talks were made by Mr. Parker and Mr. Miles.

Mr. Parker pleaded for a big force of personal workers, who will canvass the city thoroughly for possible converts. Each worker will carry a list of persons who will be invited to the meetings and prayed for. Mr. Parker says that this is one of the most important features of the campaign.

TO COMMENCE WORK

MARYVILLE PUBLIC SCHOOLS ALL READY FOR OPENING.

194 ENROLL IN H. S.

Indications Are That Attendance Will Exceed That of Other Years—New Teachers Arrive.

The Maryville public schools will open Monday. The hours of opening will remain the same as last year. Classes in the high school will begin at 8:30 o'clock, the grades at 8.40 o'clock. All books for both grades and high school are on hand now for the beginning of classes next week.

Work in the high school will begin at once. The plan was adopted this year, as used in all city schools, of having all high school students enroll before the opening of school. This eliminates the usual delays due to enrollment and classification of students, arrangement of schedules, conflicts, etc. Heretofore actual work in the high school has not begun until the second week of school.

Indications are for a large enrollment in the high school this year. The advance enrollment thus far is 184. About 70 or 80 others who were unaware of the change in the plan of enrolling or were unable for some reason to attend will enroll Monday. The nonresident enrollment is holding up well, regardless of the increase in tuition. The classes in chemistry, manual training and cooking are already overcrowded.

Miss Wren, the new teacher of science, and Mr. Berger, the new English teacher, are here getting acquainted with work in their respective departments. Superintendent McDonald and Principal Magee have been here for some time. All other teachers are also here ready for work.

Coach Schultz is on hand, meeting the boys wko are interested in athletics. He is well pleased with the prospects. His optimism also prevails among the boys. Coach Schultz is especially anxious to get an early start in football practice. While this will be the first year for M. H. S. in football, there is plenty of material for a good team.

High school students who have not enrolled will he accommodated in the superintendent's office Monday morning. The grade schools will enroll all students on Monday morning, September 11th. All must be present at 8:40 o'clock.

Mrs. C. M. Chilton, who has been a guest at the home of Mrs. J. B. Robinson, returned to her home in St. Joseph yesterday.

CONG. BOOHER HERE

ATTENDED THE COUNTY FAIR IN MARYVILLE YESTERDAY.

TELLS OF CONGRESS WORK

Was a Session at Which Measures of Unusual Importance Were Made Into Law.

Congressman Charles F. Booher, who returned this week from Washington, where he has been continuously since the first week in last December, was in Maryville attending the county fair yesterday. Congressman Booher is looking well and feeling the same way. He proposes to take an active part in the coming campaign. Asked as to how the work of congress had progressed, he said:

Glad to Be at Home.

"After a long and arduous session of congress, lasting over nine months, I am very glad to again be at home among the people of the fourth district and to meet my friends and give an account of my stewardship. I shall remain at home and engage in the campaign until just before December 1st next, when congress will again convene.

The Mexican Situation.

"I believe the president is handling the Mexican situation in the best possible manner. The Mexican people have a right to work out their own salvation, and this, the leading republic of the world, ought not to begin a war of conquest against them, but, on the contrary, should do everything possible to bring about a better understanding between this poverty stricken, wretched country and ours.

"The strike situation was a troublesome one and the president did the only thing he could under the law, which was to refer the whole thing to congress, and congress responded with temporary legislation that averted the strike. This legislation is criticized

SENATOR REED A REAL NATIONAL LEADER.

The masterful speech delivered by Missouri's matchless junior senator, Hon. James A. Reed, in the United States senate a few days ago, reviewing the constructive work of the Wilson administration is attracting nation-wide attention. Mr. Reed is one of the country's recognized big men and is growing daily in the estimation of the people everywhere. He is never superficial. He talks only when he has something to say—has a message of real value to the masses.

"I want to congratulate you upon the splendid speech you made in the senate. I am instructing our publicity department to make good use of it. We are all grateful to you for the splendid effort."

Hon. Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, writes: "I want you to know that I read every word of your speech. It is a great campaign document and ought to be made use of. I am sorry it came at the time when the country is so much interested in the strike. It is a complete and unanswerable argument in every way, and I congratulate you upon it."

Hon. W. G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, member of President Wilson's cabinet, writing from Spring Lake, N. J., warmly commends the speech in a letter to Senator Reed. He says: "I want to congratulate you heartily on your splendid speech in the senate on August 29th on 'The Record of Democratic Legislation.' You have presented the facts compactly and irresistibly. It is one of the most convincing utterances on the subject I have read. I hope the speech will get wide circulation. I have written National Chairman McCormick today suggesting that it be widely circulatted by the national committee."

This recognition over and above every other national speaker, is not only a personal compliment to Senator Reed, but one in which every Missourian has a part. It means something for the state to be represented in the greatest deliberative body in the world by a man who measures up to the highest standard in statesmanship.

Aggressive, fearless, a clear thinker, a splendid orator, Senator Reed is recognized as essentially an advocate and defender of the soundest legislation, in finance and in business, to give an equal chance to all, big and little.

He stands for rational development of our resources, expansion of our industries, never forgetting the welfare of the man in the shop, the man on the farm, the man in the street. Only the predatory "interests" are his foes.

In the senate of the United States he looms large as a power for great and genuine democracy.

HEALTHY HOGS RESIST CHOLERA.

Hogs are not as resistant to disease at this season of the year as they are in the spring when getting an abundance of green foliage and having access to a wide range. It is necessary, therefore, to give them more attention and better care to offset seasonal conditions and danger from new corn.

Do not feed in the same lot or on the same acre of ground day after day. This contaminates the feeding places and also attracts crows, pigeons and sparrows, which may have been feeding with a cholera infected herd. Throw the feed out in a different spot each day, thus giving the pigs a "clean plate" from which to eat.

The water supply is of much importance to the health of the hogs at this time of year. Old mud wallows are never good, but are not so bad if the hogs can have pure water to drink, but if forced to drink and bathe in the same "tub" serious trouble can be expected at any time. See that they have an abundance of pure water to drink, situated near the wallow holes or feeding places. Pure water will aid materially in keeping the herd cholera free.—E. R. Spence, University of Missouri, College of Agriculture.

THE MILK QUESTION

Inspection Should Be Made of All Places Where Milk Is Produced for the Public.

There has never been a time when the public was more exacting in their demands for purity, cleanliness and wholesomeness of milk and milk products than now. The public are well within thir right in making these demands, and they should know that never in the history of the industry were dairymen, creamerymen and others engaged in dairying and in manufacturing dairy products better prepared to meet these demands than now, so says State Dairy Commissioner E. G. Bennett of Missouri.

Men who own dairy herds realize that they are producers of raw material. Their herds and equipment represent considerable investment. Their success depends on the satisfaction of those consuming their products, and they are (to a greater or less degree) responsible for the welfare of this industry.

If the producers sell to manufacturers, they know that the quality of the manufactured product depends on the condition of their raw material. Their increased interest in the welfare of their herds, together with the building of better barns (seen the country over), equipped with appliances and conveniences looking toward the proper care of cows and careful handling of their product, clearly indicates a growing desire of the producer to meet the consumers' demands.

The progressive dairies, milk distributing plants, creameries and cheese factories today are equipped with the latest devices for the proper handling of the products while undergoing preparation, preparatory to being placed in the consumers' hands in approved condition.

Far too often these products are improperly handled and badly cared for after reaching the consumer—dissatisfaction results, and the producer or manufacturer is unjustly criticised.

Milk bearing the stamp of approval and merit by those in authority is not a guarantee that it will keep wholesome if not properly cared for in the home or retail shop. Containers should be thoroughly sterrilized and carefully dried; milk should be kept cold and at regular temperature, and should also be kept covered; milk absorbs odors very readily and should be kept free from contaminating influences.

While those engaged in the industry are to be congratulated on the improvement of the health of their herds and the methods employed in the producing and caring for dairy products, it should not be understood that all dairies are clean and producing safe milk.

The laws of Missouri provide that every town and city can pass ordinances regulating their local milk supply. This should be done, and inspection made of all places where milk is produced for the public, and such rules and regulations enforced as will protect consumers against the sale and use of unwholesome milk or that which is unfit for family use.

LAUGH AT CORNS.

California Has a League Which Shuns Footwear.

FEEL LIKE BAREFOOT BOY.

Members Must Be Willing to Walk Before Assembled Multitude, Including Their Wives, Unshod and Be as Nonchalant as Can Be.

Sacramento, Cal.—Harkening back to the days when man roamed carelessly across green pastures, unshackled by costly footwear, when cool, solid comfort met the naked foot at every step and when corns and bunions were unheard of, four prominent Sacramentans have formed what is to be known as the Sacramento Barefoot league.

There are four charter members of the league, all residents of Yardley avenue, and they are Dr. Robert E. Smith, James McCullough, L. O. Lumry and Steve Downey.

The league was organized in quite an unintentional way. Which of the four was the originator is not known, but it is intimated that Dr. Smith, for several years advocate of the Coatless Summer League For Men, had something to do with it.

At any rate the league has had several meetings. The requirements of the league are these: No member must be too modest to display his bare feet. He must be without pedal covering in attending meetings. He must be willing to, and enjoy, walking on his lawn before the assembled multitude, including his wife, unshod.

He must be willing to step into his neighbor's house in his bare feet and walk across his neighbor's hardwood floors as nonchalantly as though he were Pithecanthropus in the jungles.

Several meetings of the league have been held at the homes of the various charter members on Yardley avenue. The meetings are preceded by a cool walk upon the lawn of the host. As the evening becomes cool the members retire to the host's drawing room and are entertained with phonograph selections.

Despite serious objection to the league on the part of the better halves in some of the homes, the organization has grown and is now reaching out for congenial spirits.

"Keep cool and comfortable and cure your corns" is the slogan of the league.

WINS FARM FOR 25 CENTS.

Spokane Laborer Gets First Prize Among 90,000 In Land Drawing.

Spokane, Wash.—It cost George Lennon, a young laborer of Spokane, just 25 cents to be awarded the best quarter section of land on the diminished Colville Indian reservation in the drawing recently held here by the government. His name was drawn first from a list of 90,410 names. He gets his choice of 160 acres of land from a total of approximately 350,000 acres.

Five thousand five hundred names were drawn, and among these are to be distributed about 1,500 pieces of land. The names of those who had registered were heaped upon the stage, and four little Spokane girls picked at random the winners of Uncle Sam's gifts of land.

PLAYED PIANO FIFTY HOURS.

Captured Long Distance Record, but Imagine the Neighbors' Sufferings!

Muncie, Ind.—For fifty hours and five minutes—more than two days—W. G. Bagley of this city played the piano. In all that time he never ceased to keep the keys moving, never let melody curl up and go to sleep. Food and drink were brought to him at the instrument. Attendants sopped his head with towels. Tolerant friends stood about and encouraged him. He was after the long distance piano playing record, and, by gum, he got it!

It is hoped no one will challenge this claim for endurance. It is certain that no one will ever question the generosity and the fortitude of Mr. Bagley's neighbors. Yet, of course, it may be that they were on their summer vacation.

WALKS COUNTRY IN 70 DAYS.

John H. Scott, at Fifty-six, Sets New Record In Pedestrianism.

Philadelphia.—John H. Scott recently reached the city hall, ending his walk from San Francisco. He is the champion long distance hiker of America.

Scott crossed the continent in 70 days 5 hours 30 minutes, almost ten days faster than any other man has made the distance. His 3,524 mile walk from San Francisco to Philadelphia beats the records of John Ennis and Edward P. Weston, the former champions.

Scott, who is fifty-six, looked fit and hardened as he reached city hall. He lost only ten pounds.

"Prayer and persistence did it," he said. "I used both frequently."

WEDS COUSIN TO GET RANCH

Member of Iowa Bachelor Girls' Club to Get $25,000 Also by Will.

Council Bluffs, Ia.—By the terms of a will left by an uncle Miss Ruby Rosenbloom, a member of the Bluffs Bachelor Girls' club, must marry her cousin within the next five years in order to get a big ranch in Colorado and $25,000.

The cousin whom she must marry if she wishes to inherit her uncle's fortune is I. Stine, also of Denver.

FAMILY OF SIXTEEN LIVE ON $100 MONTH

In Seventeen Years Fourteen Children Came to This Couple.

Riverside, Ia.—To provide for a family of fourteen children on the modest salary of $1,200 paid by Uncle Sam to a rural mail carrier is the problem that confronts John C. D'Autremont, a rural carrier here. D'Autremont does it, however, and a finer family of children one would not care to see.

More interesting than ever in this already interesting family is the fact that the father is only forty-seven years old, the mother, Mrs. Lucy Swift D'Autremont, is but thirty-eight and the couple has been married only seventeen years.

The father of this family is of French Huguenot descent, his ancestors having been Huguenot refugees when they came to America to establish a home. Mixed in the blood lines of this particular family are the strains of Irish and German, the mother having been of Celtic and Teutonic descent.

Although they range all the way from sixteen years old down to the twin daughters now nine months old, there is not a weakling in the family. They are healthy both physically and mentally.

SHERIFF DID HER SHOPPING BEFORE TAKING PRISONER

Attached Negro to Herself With Handcuff and Was "Loaded" For Trouble.

Chicago.—Mrs. Robert W. Sheets of Lincoln, Ill., spent a joyous afternoon recently along State street consuming ice cream sodas. Later she stepped into detective headquarters and said to the desk sergeant:

"I want my prisoner, please, W. A. Russell."

"Russell?" said the sergeant. "Why, Russell's the negro who's to go back to Lincoln. The sheriff was to come after him."

"Well, I'm the sheriff's wife," returned Mrs. Sheets. "I'm also a deputy. Won't you hurry a little? The train leaves at 6:30."

So Russell started with Mrs. Sheets to the union station, where she opened her handbag a couple of inches, observing, "See, I've got an automatic here, and it's loaded, too, and here are my handcuffs."

Mrs. Sheets then took out the handcuffs, fastened one on one of his wrists and the other on her wrist and put the key in her stocking.

"Now, William," she said, "don't try to do anything, for I'm loaded."

BY STAGE ALONG OLD TRAIL.

Harvest Hands Use Ancient Coach to Reach Wheatfields.

Hutchinson, Kan.—Most of the harvest hands make their way to the wheatfields by rail, some on the plush and some riding the rods and box cars. But one party that passed through here occupied an old time stagecoach.

It probably is the first time a stagecoach has followed the Santa Fe trail westward in many years. This stage came from Ottawa. It is a bus used for a quarter of a century as the town bus at Ottawa. George Hempstead was driving it, and he had it loaded with men who will work in the harvest fields.

They were bound for Garfield, where they have jobs. Hempstead said it had taken them two weeks to make the drive from Ottawa.

THE WALTZ IS COMING BACK.

Dancing Masters Decree Doom of the Acrobatic Tango.

Chicago.—The old fashioned, dreamy waltz will supplant the acrobatic tango in the ballrooms of the country if the National Association of Dancing Masters has any influence. In convention here, with 400 members attending, the dance professors decreed that the tango must go. The waltz, the one step and the fox trot will be the favorites this season.

"Dancers are tiring of the tango and similar dances," said Thomas McDougall of Pittsburgh, president of the association. "The waltz always led until the tango came in, and we propose to re-establish it."

Aged Woman Drives Auto.

Danville, Ill.—Sarah Hewitt, aged eighty-three, drove to Danville from her home, eight miles away, in her eighty horsepower roadster. "I can keep pace with the world, do my share of the work and enjoy my share of the pleasures with the rest of them, though I am nearly a quarter of a century past the age when, Dr. Osler said, folks should be chloroformed and killed," she declared. She handled her powerful car with ease and skill. "And I covered the distance in twenty minutes, which half a century ago would have taken an hour or more of jolting riding," she said.

Woman Ropes Alligator.

Wharton, Tex.—Mrs. Will Hendricks is receiving the congratulations of her friends over having captured alive a large alligator. One evening recently she noticed the alligator trying to climb the hog wire fence of the L. O. Ireson pasture, and she ran home and brought a rope with which she lassoed the reptile and tied it to a post. Those who were attracted to the spot to view the catch stated that the alligator was over six feet long and that it fought desperately to make its escape.

Keeping Yourself Well

DRIVING OUT CATARRH

If people knew how the presence of catarrh is a constant menace, they would have none of it. It infests some part of the delicately adjusted body and makes it useless, thus throwing on the other organs more than their share of work. It affords a carefully prepared seedbed for the germs of colds, grip, tuberculosis and pneumonia. It so disarranges Nature's delicate plans as to make possible asthma, hay fever and other respiratory disorders. It spreads until it becomes systemic, thus involving many organs and debilitating the entire system with serious results.

Catarrh is easily neglected, and it rarely gets well of itself. It needs proper medicinal correction. For almost half a century many thousands have found help in Peruna, a valuable tonic with special efficacy in catarrhal conditions. The aim is to clean out waste matter, to dispel the catarrhal inflammation, and tone up the whole system. Its users willingly testify that it has done all this and even more for catarrhal sufferers. What it has done is the best proof of what it will do. You may rely on Peruna.

In tablet form it is pleasant to take and easy to administer.

Manalin Tablets are the ideal laxative and liver tonic. They have no unpleasant effects and do not form a habit. 10c, 25c.

BEST RACES RUN YESTERDAY

Fifth heat in First Race, Fastest Run in Missouri This Season—Forsythe Gives Song.

The most exciting and interesting races of the fair were run yesterday afternoon, when the two fastest horses on the Maryville track fought it out for first money in the free-for-all pace. The following horses ran: Judge Lerric, owned by F. F. Brockway of Tipton, Ia., driven by Brockway; Kewanee, owned by C. M. Hutchinson of Fayetteville, Ark., driven by Hutchinson; Lon C., owned by N. Maddox of Roswell, N. M., driven by Davis; Riley Boy, owned by J. C. Jones of Weston, Mo., driven by Tapp.

The race went five heats. Kewanee won the first heat in 2:14¼ and the second in 2:11¼, breaking the record on the Maryville track. Judge Lerric won the third heat in 2:14¼ and also the fourth in 2:15¼, making the two horses tied, each having won two heats. A dispute came up just after the fourth heat was run. It was claimed that Brockway, driving Judge Lerric, cut in ahead of Kewanee to slow the latter's speed, but Judge Haney, after an investigation, allowed the race to stand as run.

The fifth and last heat was the most exciting of all. Both Kewanee and Judge Lerric had the lead at times during the last heat, and until the last 150 yards it looked like Kewanee's race, but Judge Lerric spurted and finished a foot ahead in a great race up the home stretch. The fifth heat was run in 2:13 and was the fastest fifth heat run in Missouri this season, according to Announcer Fred Clancy. Judge Lerric won first money, Kewanee second, Lon C. third and Riley Boy fourth.

The farmers' pace was a humorous affair and Announcer Clancy often amused the crowd with his funny remarks about the race. Diamond Joe, owned by Fred Larmer of Ravenwood, won first money. Black Bally, owned by Albert Robinson of Maryville, and Billy C., owned by T. W. Calvert of Bolckow tied for second. Annie Bingaman, owned by J. R. Lawson, came in fourth.

The third race on the program, a half-mile dash, was won by Wood Maid, owned by John Turpin of Brookfield, Mo. Bob Logan, owned by W. T. McHaney of Wellsburg, Ia., won second and Orphan Boy, owned by J. E. Irvin of Clarinda, Ia., won third.

The last race, a six furlong running race, was won by Lucky Mack, owned by Fred Marmat of Sabetha, Kan., Dority, jockey. Miss Folly, owned by R. G. Brown of Kingfisher, Okla., Anderson, jockey, won second. Imprint, owned by Guy Gray, Maryville, won third.

Charles Forsythe, choir leader for Charles Reign Scoville, the evangelist, who will come Sunday, sang "Mother Machree" at the fair yesterday afternoon. The crowd appreciated the treat and he was forced to sing the chorus over again.

"WAR TAX" STAMPS

Repeal Effective Last Night, St. Joseph Collector Notified.

Stamp taxes on legal documents and cosmetics were repealed effective at midnight last night. F. B. Edman, deputy revenue collector in charge of the St. Joseph office, received a telegram last night from the collector of revenue at Washington, D. C., stating that the tax on schedules A and B was repealed, effective at 12 o'clock.

This means that it is no longer necessary to put revenue stamps on notes, bills of lading, and all similar contracts and instruments of proprietary nature. The ruling with regard to cosmetics will not be of so much interest to the public generally as to dealers in these articles. However, there are few persons in business life who will not be pleased to know that no longer are they required to put special "war stamps" on all legal documents.

"I expect to have more definite information in the morning," declared Edman. "This was a great surprise at this time. While we knew that congress had repealed the bill, we did not expect that it would become effective until Jan. 1."

These two stamp levies have been in force since Nov. 1, 1914. They were a part of the so-called "war tax" legislation. Even telegrams were included in the list, and much inconvenience has been caused many times because of the "one cent war tax."—St. Joseph Gazette.

SELECT SEED CORN NOW.

Early Field Choice May Increase Yield 5 to 10 Per Cent.

One of the most profitable things a farmers' club can do at this time of year, according to W. H. Baker of the College of Agriculture of the University of Missouri, is to provide a supply of reliable seed corn for next year's planting. Most of the supply may usually be secured by intelligent field selection from the best fields in the community before the time of the early freezes, says Mr. Baker. As soon as selected the corn should be stored in racks in such a way as to secure rapid and thorough drying.

Experimental work along this line shows that the yield of corn may be increased 5 to 10 per cent by early field selection and careful storage of the seed as compared with the ordinary method of crib selection in the spring. Twenty-five corn growers, constituting a farmers' club in any good corn section of Missouri, may easily raise a fifty thousand bushel corn crop under average conditions. A five per cent increase of this crop would be worth at least fifteen hundred dollars or sixty dollars per man. The extra labor required for early field selection and proper storage would not exceed two days per man.

"Why not have a seed corn day devoted to the field selection and careful storage of next year's seed corn?" asks Mr. Baker. Every one who knows how should help. The boys could be taught the art of field selection and methods of storage and have the importance of good seed impressed upon their minds. The College of Agriculture will send instructions for field selection and storage of seed corn upon request.

Emerson Miller, pastor of the Firs. Christian church, at the parsonage. Those present were: County Superintendent and Mrs. Bert Cooper, Miss Myrtle Cooper and Frank Cooper and Paul Graham. The young couple will make their home on the Cooper farm, near Sheridan.

For Miss Linneman.

Miss Mary Herwick gave a birthday surprise party at her home, on North Main street, last night in honor of Miss Mamie Linneman. Games and conversation whiled away the social hours, after which a four-course luncheon was served at Reuillard's. The appointments of the table were in pink and white, and the same color scheme was carried out in the refreshments. The guests were: Mrs. Eldon Irvin, Mrs. Andy Thompson, Mrs. John Shonley, Misses Katherine Shonley, Marie Reuillard, Rose and Lenore Schumacher, Bertha Lehmer, Mary Herwick and Mamie Linneman.

W. F. M. Session.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Eckles, on West Torrance street. The devotional exercises were conducted by Miss Lucy Davis, who then gave a review of the first chapter of the mission study book, "The King's Highway." Mrs. Gallatin Craig read a paper on "Preparedness in the Home Missions." During the social hour refreshments were served by the committee, Mrs. D. E. Hotchkin, Mrs. Leroy Lippman and Mrs. Albert Watson.

Mrs. T. J. Tobin, Hostess.

The W. C. I. club was very pleasantly entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. J. Tobin. Roll call was answered with quotations. During a short business session plans that were under consideration were discussed. A committee composed of Mrs. Elihu Carter, Mrs. W. J. Fox, Mrs. and Ed Cummins was chosen to assist Miss Mary Cummins to look after the domestic science work, and a short time will be devoted at each meeting to this topic. In the absence of the leader, Mrs. McComb, the president, Mrs. Baker led a short program. The first number was a vocal selecion, "Always in the Way," by Miss Irene Fisher. Musical selection, "Hearts and Flowers," by Mrs. Carter; "Shepherd's Evening Song," by Mrs. Fox; a reading, "The Best Way," by Mrs. Foley, a reading, "The New Church Organ," by Mrs. Baker. Mrs. P. D. Nicholas was present at this meeting and was received as a member. During the social hour, as they were enjoying a most delicious watermelon, Mr. Ed Cummins "happened" in, but as Ed had taken a car of ladies to this meeting he was "welcome in." The next meeting will be with Miss Mary Cummins on September 20, with Mrs. Foley as leader.

WHAT THE EDITOR'S Nodaway SCISSORS FOUND

ELMO REGISTER.

Fred Bain was out on the porch Tuesday and the doctor has dismissed the case, is the good news from the man who fell from the transformer light pole, a distance of 24 feet. He came down town Wednesday afternoon in his wheel chair.

We saw some fine corn on our trip to Maryville, Monday. Some of the fields looked like they would give an old fashioned yield of 40 to 60 bushels to the acre. There is more corn and better than had been expected, and if a killing frost stays off long enough we will have plenty.

CONCEPTION JUNCTION COURIER.

The Conception Junction public schools opened for the 1916-17 term on September 4th, with 42 enrolled in the lower room and 21 in the upper. The principal, C. C. Vickery, advises that the preliminary work of this week has been very satisfactory.

Holy Family Parochial School opened for the 1916-17 term last Monday with an enrollment of 45. This is a very good record, and it thought that more will enter. Another grade, the ninth, has been added this year.

CLEARMONT NEWS.

The corn is ripening fast and the early corn is about all out of the way of frost and the late corn will soon be out of the way. The outlook now is that the corn in this section will be as good or better than last year, but there are a few people who think it will not turn out as well as is thought for when it comes to gather it.

The electric light force is busy wiring the residences ready to attach as soon as the transmission line is complete. The setting of poles has been delayed on account of the steel poles failing to get here. Mr. Hellmers says he will put on enough men to set the poles in short order as soon as they arrive.

SKIDMORE NEWS.

A few of Skidmore's most enterprising young people will attend some place of learning. Misses Mary Barrett, Grace Foster, Hildred Goslee, Lettie Rodman, Ruth McDowell, Amy Barrett and Florence Jordan will attend the Normal at Maryville. Neal and Francis Montgomery will go to Evanston, Ill. Miss Carrie Twaddell will leave Saturday for Howard Payne College at Fayette, Mo. Byron Owen will attend the University at Lawrence, Kan. Rollo Howden will attend the Missouri University at Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Mitchell entertained the following guests at Sunday dinner: Mr. and Mrs. Bob Craven, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Seafers and Mrs. Anna Stauble of Maryville, and Mr. and Mrs. Will James and sons.

RAVENWOOD GAZETTE.

Audrey Verleen, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Houchens, was playing with a small safety pin last Sunday afternoon, and in some manner put the pin in her nose. The pin being open, she was unable to get it out, and when the parents discovered it, they made a hurry-up trip to Maryville, where Dr. Will Wallis, assisted by Dr. Bell, managed to locate the pin, and after several hours' tedious work, succeeded in getting hold of the pin, bringing it down the throat and out of the mouth.

The old fashioned girl, who acted as though it was a sin to display her hosiery, now has a daughter who seems to imagine she is a stocking demonstrator.

BARNARD BULLETIN.

Walter Wohlford suffered an auto accident last week when he was overturned in a car. He sustained a broken collar bone and was badly shaken up. The accident occurred in Iowa.

The Maryville Fair, which is going on this week in the county seat, is drawing a large crowd of people from Barnard. The indications are that the fair this year will be the biggest and best one yet. Whenever the city of Maryville starts to do anything she sure lives up to her slogan: "Maryville Has It!"

Work has begun on the fine residence that John A. Fields is erecting. Evacuation is being made for the basement. The house is to be made out of concrete blocks of Fields' own manufacture. It promises to be one of the most pretentious houses in Barnard.

PARNELL SENTINEL.

Miss Matie Evans, who was taken to St. Joseph last week to be operated on, returned Sunday noon without an operation, as the physicians there did not think it necessary. She was found to be suffering from ptomaine poison instead of appendicitis, as was thought at first. She is improving very nicely.

Talk up the electric light question for Parnell. It will not only be a good thing for the town and people, but will be a good advertisement for the surrounding country. We need the lights and the company has the juice and needs the money. Let's don't go backward in improvements, but push ahead.

Fred Breit brought to this office Tuesday morning a beet weighing 11¾ pounds. It is some beet and would easily be enough to feed a large hotel.

BURLINGTON JUNCTION POST.

Perhaps a "dry" town doesn't help, but how will you explain the fact that two men were arrested in Maryville for being drunk during the month of August, and both of them were said to have arrived in the county seat in that condition?

Miss Helen Johnston went to Maryville Monday, where she will attend the Maryville Conservatory of Music. She expects to attend the full term. Miss Johnston has taken considerable instruction in music and is an excellent pianist.

The big power grader belonging to the township is at work on the road east of town this week. The road has been graded from the Boyer corner to the Cummins corner and the Wilson and Ferguson roads are now being worked. The grading is being done in the right way now, the crown of the road being made wide and high and the ditches deep enough to keep the surface of the roads dry. The machine is being pulled by Caldwell's big tractor, John Williams being the engineer. Erwin Hollis is handling the grader.

HOPKINS JOURNAL.

The Hopkins public school will open next Monday morning, and it is thought that the enrollment will be as large, if not larger, than any previous period in the school's history. Work on the addition to the school building will be pushed as rapidly as possible, as the room is badly needed, rooms down town being used until the new addition is ready.

Rev. C. R. Haudenshield of California, an evangelist with a national reputation, filled the pulpit of the First M. E. church in Maryville last Sunday, being in that city visiting at the home of his wife's mother, Mrs. J. V. Embree. Rev. Haudenshield conducted a meeting in Hopkins some years ago, and his wife is a former teacher in our schools.

At Smith's Center it has become a habit among farmers to just take the first Ford they come to in town when they are ready to leave. One lady kicks because she happened to need the baby clothes that were left in the car she came to town in. Her troubles really developed into a crying need.

The Journal is really jealous of Henry Ford, his profits last year being nearly sixty million dollars in excess of the profits of this publication.

'NICKEL PLATE' IS SOLD

Ferdinand Townsend Buys Splendid Animal Owned by R. L. Davis of Kansas City.

Ferdinand Townsend has purchased the saddle horse, Nickel Plate, owned by R. L. Davis of Kansas City, and will have the splendid animal for his own use after October.

Nickel Plate was the recipient of much admiration and favorable comment at the evening horse show of the Nodaway county fair Wednesday evening when the competitors in the saddle class were put through their paces. He will be remembered as the iron gray of fine proportion and proud carriage which pranced around the track with the five other saddle horses during the evening performance.

The horse will not be turned over to his new owner before October because Mr. Davis has contracted to show him at the fairs at Sedalia, Topeka, Kan., Springfield and at Denver and Colorado Springs, Colo. When the circuit is complete the horse will be returned to Maryville and Mr. Townsend will use him as his own saddle horse. He never will be shown at fairs or horse shows again.

Nickel Plate is nine years old. He has been shown at fairs and horse shows for the last six years. He won the championship at Madison Square Garden several years ago and on the same day was sold for $3,500. He is thoroughly broken and can be ridden by man or woman.

ONLY FOUR ARRESTS MADE.

Considering Fair Week, Not Much Bootlegging or Gambling Going On, Thanks to the Officials.

This week has been a very good one, considering it as fair week, as only a few arrests have been made by the city authorities. The fair grounds are well policed, and the officers have been unable to catch any bootleggers or gambling going on. Whi'e there may be something of that kind going on, yet it is being done at a time and in a place where the many officers there are not able to catch the parties.

An out-of-town man had a suit case full of whisky, evidently intending to sell it on the grounds last night, when the officers arrived on deck and arrested him. As none of the whisky had been sold, the party could not be held.

somewhat by standpat politicians, and especially by the Honorable Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for the presidency. He said in a speech on yesterday that he believed that legislation ought to be provided to control the question of wages and hours of labor, but such legislation should not be had until after a thorough investigation of the question, and that is just exactly what this administration is doing. The legislation adopted was simply temporary; an investigation will be made by distinterested men; a report will be made to congress early in December, when legislation of a permanent nature will be passed.

Three to Be Considered.

"There are three parties to be considered in all legislation that may be had tending to prevent trouble between employers and employes. The Republican candidate seems to forget the third party entirely, i. e., the people at large. To have permitted this strike to have come upon the country would have meant ruin to thousands of people and starvation in our large cities for the poor. The president did the right thing and will receive the approval of the country at large.

"We must not overlook the fact that seventy Republicans in the house of representatives, including the former speaker, Hon. Joseph G. Cannon, voted for the strike bill, and only fifty-four voted against it. I mention this vote for the purpose of showing to the people at large that congress looked at it from the broad plain of protection to the rights of all parties concerned. When permanent legislation is had upon this question, no difference what party is in power, the rights of the people, the rights of the railroads and the rights of the employes will be carefully guarded and protected.

"All indications point to the re-election of President Wilson and a Democratic congress, so the work of reform and progress may go steadily onward until all the unjust legislation of sixteen years during the rule of the standpatter has come to an end."
